

MEDIA STATEMENT

25th October 2015

Darwin Airline reacts to false accusation by SSP/VPOD

In response to the statements made to the press by Mr. Jamshid Pouranpir, representative of the trade union SSP/VPOD, Darwin Airline SA communicates as follows.

Mr. Pouranpir makes false statements, damages the company and its employees. Darwin Airline is in possession of proof that contradicts all statements. Flight safety and full compliance with all rules and regulations and quality of service are our number one priority. The safety compliance of Darwin Airline SA, like for all airlines, is constantly monitored by the Federal Office of Civil Aviation, which has not advanced any criticism.

The Company strongly condemns the unmotivated media attack by Mr. Pouranpir and will not tolerate any behavior that may hinder its brand image or its commercial activity.

Darwin Airline SA has retained Mr. Davide Corti JD from Lugano as its lawyer in order to protect its interests, which have been severely damaged.

Mr. Corti JD has been retained to act on all civil and criminal courts, towards Mr. Pouranpir, the Trade Union SSP/VDOP he represent, as well as any other persons responsible of illegal actions towards Darwin Airline SA and its management.

-Ends-

For information:

Barbara Piras

Communication Officer

Darwin Airline SA

Via Campagna 2a

6904 LUGANO

Dir: +41 (0) 91 6124518

barbara.piras@etihadregional.com