ETIHAD REGIONAL CONNECTS GENEVA TO BREST

Etihad Regional, operated by Darwin Airline, is flying to Brittany as of the 2017 summer season.

The leading Swiss regional airline has announced that it will be offering two weekly flights from Geneva to Brest during the 2017 summer season.

The news was announced by the company's CEO, Maurizio Merlo: "We are constantly looking for new destinations in order to offer a network in line with the needs of our passengers. Brest has a great potential as a leisure destination and offers an easy access to Brittany and Normandy and their beautiful vacation destinations. Combining great scenery with a wealth of history Brest is the perfect gateway for visiting northern France. With the new seasonal flights to Brest, we are proud to implement our fifth seasonal destination out of Geneva, after Biarritz, Cagliari, Ibiza and Olbia."

The flights will be operated twice a week with a 50-seat SAAB 2000 aircraft according to the following schedule:

Geneva - Brest: Thursday and Sunday from 6th July to 24th September 2017

Thursday:

GVA-BES (F7 436) Departure: 16:10 - Arrival: 18:00

BES-GVA (F7 437) Departure: 18:30 - Arrival: 20:10

Sunday

GVA-BES (F7 436) Departure: 12:25 - Arrival: 14:15
