New: Etihad Regional flies to Geneva from Leipzig/Halle and will operate additional flights to Paris and Zurich

Etihad Regional – operated by Darwin Airline – has now added another destination to its network with the launch of direct flights to Geneva today. The second-largest city in Switzerland is now the fourth destination after Amsterdam, Paris and Zurich that the airline serves from the airport in Central Germany. The new non-stop service to Geneva is operated five times per week (Monday to Friday). The flights from Geneva to Leipzig/Halle run on Monday to Thursday and on Sunday.
